Dear Guest(s)

Rijsttafel is a traditional Indonesian dish dating back to the times when the Dutch were living in Indonesia.

A typical Rijsttafel meal consists of a variety of traditional Indonesian foods and sauces served in small dishes accompanied with rice.

The most authentic way to enjoy one of these delicious feasts is in a typical Indonesian eating house or pavilion seated on cushions around a low table. We invite you to enjoy your meal at the Javanese twin pavilions in Puri Mas Spa Resort or at the Ballroom Restaurant ocean front if you prefer!

At Puri Mas Spa Resort, you will feel the warmth of the staff as they welcome you through the majestic gates of this awe-inspiring property. Meander to your eating pavilion, where our task for the evening is to awaken all of your senses with the magical tastes, and smells of this exotic island together with the sights, sounds of the jungle around you.

To select your menu:

We are happy to offer guests one set menu per table for a minimum of two persons, in either of our two pavilions.

Our staffs are always happy to assist you in your menu selection.

Please make your reservation at least one half day in advance with our Restaurant Staff
